

Day trip by kayak in Adventfjorden

Beach visit in Hiorthamn

Join us on a kayak trip in Adventfjorden, one of Svalbard's most historical fjords surrounded by mountains up to 1000 metres tall. Experience the contrasts between the organized society of Longyearbyen and the historical east side of Adventfjorden with its remnants of a proud coal production industry. We will go on shore from the beach to see exciting places, will serve lunch and complete with hot drinks such as coffee and tea.

On a kayak trip, you will get closer to a nature experience and master a thrilling and traditional form of arctic travel. The trip will be led by experienced kayak guides within our safe boundaries, and is thus suitable for anybody with a spirit of adventure.

The trip will start with pick-up and transportation to our storage in Sjøområdet. You will be assigned your personal kayaking equipment for the day. Instructions, safety training and environmental information will be provided during the trip. Prior kayaking experience is not required.
